Pursuant to T.C.A. §§ 4-5-401 through 4-5-404, prior to initiating the rule making process, all agencies shall conduct a review of whether a proposed rule or rule affects small business.

The rule is not anticipated to have an impact on small business.

Impact on Local Governments

Pursuant to T.C.A. §§ 4-5-220 and 4-5-228 “any rule proposed to be promulgated shall state in a simple declarative sentence, without additional comments on the merits of the policy of the rules or regulation, whether the rule or regulation may have a projected impact on local governments.” (See Public Chapter Number 1070 (<http://publications.tnsosfiles.com/acts/106/pub/pc1070.pdf>) of the 2010 Session of the General Assembly)

The rule is not anticipated to have an impact on local governments.

Additional Information Required by Joint Government Operations Committee

All agencies, upon filing a rule, must also submit the following pursuant to T.C.A. § 4-5-226(i)(1).

- (A) A brief summary of the rule and a description of all relevant changes in previous regulations effectuated by such rule;

Per Tenn. Code. Ann. § 4-5-102(12)(B)(iv)(b) agency matters related to the housing of students must be promulgated as rules. This requirement was further stated in State Board of Regents of University v. Gray, 561 S.W.2d 140 (Tenn. 1978).

The demand for student housing is at an all-time high and is beginning to align with our goal to become a “destination campus.”

The addition of the Gather properties and new housing construction on Deloach Street, discussed earlier, will allow for strategic expansion of University housing options for all students.

Supports the University's strategic plan to promote student success and academic excellence:

- ✓ Increases retention and affinity for the institution thus positively impacting graduation rates
- ✓ Encourages student success and engagement through learning opportunities provided outside of the classroom
- ✓ Provides easy access to campus resources (library, labs, dining, recreation center, support services)

Our policies need to align with our shifting demographics and strategies including moving to a resident/destination campus from the traditional perception of being a “commuter” campus.

- UofM management will explore a policy adjustment which would call for all new full-time first-year students to live in University of Memphis-owned or operated residential communities
 - Exceptions to this policy will be allowed based on industry norms
- UofM will submit a final recommendation with related rule changes to the BOT for consideration and action in the near future

From: Department of Business Information and Technology, Fogelman College of Business and Economics

Subject: Recommendation for reduction in Huigang Liang's tenure probation period

Date: June 21, 2019

We, the Department of Business Information and Technology in the Fogelman College of Business and Economics, strongly recommend a six-year reduction in Dr. Huigang Liang's tenure probation period. Dr. Liang, the incoming Professor and Holder of the FedEx Chair of Excellence in MIS, possesses a superior record in teaching, research and service and is very deserving of the requested reduction.

Dr. Liang has accrued over 60 publications in peer-reviewed academic journals in disciplines such as management information systems (MIS), healthcare, and production research since 2007. Of these articles, 15 are A+ and ten were published in the top three MIS journals (MIS Quarterly, Information Systems Research, and Journal of Management Information Systems). Dr. Liang also has 11 A-rated journal publications in MIS. With his numerous publications in high-quality journals, he has been ranked among the top 25 MIS researchers worldwide (based on normal count in the period 2007-2017).

Dr. Liang occupies a leadership role in the MIS academic community. He has served as an Associate Editor for MIS Quarterly (A+ journal) and is currently an Associate Editor for Information Systems Research (A+ journal) as well as a Senior Editor for Journal of the Association for Information Systems (A+ journal). In addition, he acted as co-director of East Carolina University's research cluster on big data and analytics with the mission of creating new organizational big data capabilities to support faculty research and regional economic development.

Dr. Liang is not only an exceptional researcher but also a dedicated teacher and mentor. He has specialized in teaching business applications programming and database management, essential MIS subject areas. Furthermore, Dr. Liang has demonstrated outstanding teaching abilities in a broad range of topics including business analytics and health informatics at the undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral levels. By integrating cutting edge research and knowledge into his teaching, he provides an enriching learning experience for students.

Dr. Liang has more than fulfilled all current tenure-track probationary period performance requirements (teaching, research, and service) at the University of Memphis.
