

The Susan Te Paske “See Me” Award
Disability Resources for Students Outstanding Faculty Award
Nomination Form for 2017-2018

Name of student: _____

Name of faculty member being nominated: _____

Department of faculty member: _____

Course(s) taught by faculty member (and taken by student): _____

Mission: To honor a University of Memphis faculty member whose actions and goals display and allow every student the opportunity for access to learning through mutual respect, understanding of disability, and sincere efforts to accommodate individual needs.

Award Criteria:

- The student nominator must be registered with Disability Resources for Students.
- The nominee must be a University of Memphis faculty member.
- The student must have been enrolled in a class with this faculty member during this academic school year (Summer 2017/ Fall 2017/ Spring 2018).
- A letter of nomination* must be presented to DRS by Friday, March 30, 2018. Include this form with your submission. DRS staff members are available to help you write your nomination letter. Just ask!

When writing the nomination letter, please include the following:

- Adjectives which describe the efforts or actions of the faculty member
- Examples of personal experiences with this faculty member which demonstrate their willingness to assist you as a learner
- Ways they have shown respect
- Ways they have shown a willingness to learn and understand about issues of disability.
- Any other reasons this faculty member deserves this award

NOTE: During the President’s Leadership Awards on Sunday, April 22, 2018 at 1:00 PM in the University Center, the winner of the Outstanding Faculty Award will be presented, and the student who nominated the award winner will help present the award.