

Tutankhamun's Golden Journey to the Afterlife

Dr. Peter Brand

November 4th

Pre-Lecture Reception: 6:30 PM

Lecture: 7:00 PM

University Center - Fountain View Room (350)

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

On the centenary of the discovery of his tomb on November 4th, 1922, we will explore Tutankhamun's journey into the afterlife through his spectacular burial treasures: golden coffins, gold death mask, jewelry, and other sacred objects placed on and around his mummy to ensure his body's preservation and his spirit's rebirth in the Egyptian Underworld. This golden horde of priceless artifacts represent the summit of Egyptian artistry and offer unique insight into how this ancient civilization prepared their kings for the journey to the beyond.

The lecture will be followed by an ARCE TN Members Dinner, please email bdelnaby@memphis.edu to attend.
