Slate discussion:

- New data base which shows the requirements and deadlines for each major – beyond the standard requirements.
- Look at your program management SLATE page and let us know if you are accepting intake for summer https://apply.memphis.edu/portal/prog_mgmt
- SLATE DAYS begin at 12:00 a.m. midnight EST. The discussion was to keep it the way it is since we have time zones all over the world.
- “Rolling admissions” is a misnomer. Every application closes at some point in time. Please allow enough time for students to register before classes begin.
- No major changes midcycle to admission requirements. Minor changes, discuss with Deb.
