

Graduate Assistant eContract Changes

Danny Linton

What Is Changing

- Beginning Fall 2014, Central Pool is no longer available for tuition
- Your department will be responsible for any tuition waivers you offer

What Is Changing

3

- Starting July 1, master's vs. doctoral students will use separate position numbers
- Current GA position numbers will be the “new” position numbers for masters; new position numbers for doctoral GAs will be active April 1st
- Any current assignments that go beyond June 30th for doctoral students will need to be terminated and revised for July 1st forward using the new doctoral position numbers

What Is Changing

4

- Departments will no longer originate EPAFs
- Your eContract “EPAF Friendly” page is now moot
- All EPAFs will be originated by Shared Services
- EPAFs will still be approved by departments

What Is Changing

5

- All eContracts (not just GAs) will soon be moving to an eContracts-Only site and out of the HR Program Guide
- All eContracts for GAs, Faculty Summer Compensation, upcoming Part-Time Faculty, and future eContracts will be housed in this same site

- What is Changing

6

Demonstration of eContract Site

Important Dates

7

- April 1st – new eContract changes ‘Go Live’.
- April 1st – eContracts are routed to Shared Services to process all EPAFs. Departments will receive notice when EPAF is ready to approve.
- April 1st – Doctoral Positions become active and may be used for assignments past June 30th.

Important Dates

8

- July 1st – Budget is available for Doctoral Positions
- July 1st – Central Pool is no longer available for tuition charges
- TBD – New site to house all eContracts will be available

Training Sessions

Upcoming classes for those who have not attended:

- April 14th
- May 21st

Register through Learning Curve

10

Questions

Thank You!

- Jan Brownlee
Graduate School
jbrownle@memphis.edu
- Holly Rounds
Ron Smyres
sharedservices@memphis.edu