

THE UNIVERSITY OF MEMPHIS®

THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE
HEALTH SCIENCE CENTER®

INTEGRATE

INterdisciplinary TEams GRounded in Apprenticeship, Telehealth, & Evidence

What is INTEGRATE?

Funded by a Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) Behavioral Health Workforce, Education, and Training (BHWET) grant.

Focus of the grant:

Interdisciplinary teamwork

Integrated behavioral health

Cultural competency & humility

Substance Use Disorders

Adverse childhood experiences (ACEs)

Telehealth

Rural Behavioral Health

AI in Practice

Compassion Fatigue & Burnout

What is INTEGRATE?

- Training program for students typically in their final internship or practicum (depending on program)
- Asynchronous and synchronous training sessions lasting approximately 6-8 months.
- Synchronous trainings will be online (typically on Fridays) and camera must be on.
- Federally funded stipend.

Participating Disciplines: Am I eligible?

- Social Work – MSW students
 - Must be in final field placement or advanced standing field placement.
 - Enrolled in SWRK 7053-7054 sequence.
- Counseling – MS in clinical mental health or school counseling
 - Must be in internship placement during the academic year that the traineeship is awarded.
 - Enrolled in practicum the first semester and internship in the next is fine.
 - Counseling faculty will review each student application and approve on a case-by-case basis.

Participating Disciplines: Am I Eligible?

- Counseling Psychology – PhD
 - Must be enrolled in practicum during final year of the program prior to internship.
- Clinical Psychology – PhD
 - Must be in final practicum prior to internship.
- Occupational Therapy – MOT
 - Must be in final fieldwork placement.
- Psychiatry Residents- DO, MD's
 - Graduate Medical Education
 - Rotation in Child & Adolescent Psychiatry

Who are the Participating Faculty?

- Social Work
 - Susan Neely-Barnes
 - Minhae Cho
 - Bernadette Ombayo
 - Susan Elswick
- Counseling
 - Michelle Brasfield – School
 - Frances Ellmo – CMH Counseling
- Counseling Psychology
 - Madeline Brodt
- Clinical Psychology
 - Kristoffer Berlin
- Psychiatry
 - Alicia Barnes
- Occupational Therapy
 - Anne Zachry
 - April Hilsdon

Other Requirements

- Must be a US Citizen, Permanent Resident (Green Card holder), or fall under the Federal definition of “qualified alien.”
- Students on F1 visas are not eligible

Cannot participate in more than one federal training grant in the same year (Double dipping)

Programs that would exclude you:

- GPE
- MOW-PEP
- UT Boling LEND
- VA training stipend
- CSWE Minority Fellows
- Project Raise

Additional Requirements of the Program

- Be placed at an internship or practicum that includes interaction with primary care physicians and serves children, youth, or young adults.
- Have a commitment to working with underserved populations after graduation.
- Participate in all asynchronous training – delivered through eCourseware or Canvas.
- Be available once a month (usually on Fridays, usually half a day) for a synchronous training event.

Benefits of the Program

- Trainings each month (synchronous & asynchronous)
- Stipend
 - $25,000 for master's level students.
 - $32,500 for doctoral students ($16,250 if part-time).

*Post-doctoral psychiatry resident ($60,000)

* The resident stipend amount is applied toward salary and educational support and does not constitute additional pay.

How do I apply?

- Apply by May 1 for the 2026-27 academic year.

Questions?

- Email INTEGRATE@memphis.edu